

MAY 3, 2009
COMMENCEMENT

WELCOME

The IUP community extends a warm welcome to the families and friends of a very distinguished graduating class. Over the past several years the class members have worked and studied and are now ready to begin a new chapter in their lives. For some, this will mean a job and the responsibilities of a family. For others, it will mean graduate or professional school. Whatever course their future takes, we hope that our graduates will look back on their years here as having prepared them to meet and deal with the challenges that life will present.

In today's ceremonies, we recognize more than one thousand undergraduate and graduate students for their academic achievement. The university joins parents, spouses, relatives, and friends in congratulating the graduates on their accomplishments and in wishing for them the happiness of a productive life, the respect of their fellow human beings, and the love of their families.

Best of luck and congratulations.

COMMENCEMENT 2009

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O Say! Can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night, that our flag was still there.

O, say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

ALMA MATER

To our noble Alma Mater's name
We, her children, sing a joyful lay
And to her a new allegiance pledge,
That lives beyond a day.

Refrain: Sing, O Sing, Our Alma Mater's praise,
Hail, O Hail, her colors' gleaming hue!
Give to her our homage and our love
And to her name be true.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER ROBERT E. COOK

Robert Cook spent his career as a serial entrepreneur in computer software. His first company was VM Software, later named System Center, which was founded in 1981, listed on both the NASDAQ stock market and the New York Stock Exchange, and sold in 1993. He acted as a seed investor, CEO advisor, and board member of several other software companies and was president of the software division of the Association of Data Processing Services Organization, the trade group for the industry.

Mr. Cook served as a Regular Army officer from 1964 until 1969 with service in Europe, Vietnam, and Washington, D.C. He holds the Bronze Star, Army Commendation Medal, and the parachutist's badge.

Mr. Cook endowed the Robert E. Cook Honors College of Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 1993 with the largest donation in the history of IUP and has been actively involved with its nurturing since that time, with additional funding for specific projects and programs. Mr. Cook is also the primary funder for the Cook Honors College Achievement Program, which provides assistance for Honors College students to study abroad and to undertake enrichment activities such as internships and independent research that have proven important in gaining scholarships and other awards that distinguish scholarly and professional performance.

Mr. Cook and his wife, Paula Brooks, are active vintners in St. Helena, California. They planted and actively manage the Dancing Hares Winery, which produces an estate-bottled wine that is blended with Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, and Petit Verdot varieties of red wine grapes and was mentioned as "a cult wine to watch" by the San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. Cook received a B.S. degree in 1964 from Indiana University of Pennsylvania and an MBA from George Washington University. He is a recipient of the Distinguished Alumni Award from the IUP Alumni Association and was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree by IUP in 2000.

PRESIDENT TONY ATWATER

Before becoming president of Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Tony Atwater served as provost and vice president for Academic Affairs at Youngstown State University, Youngstown, Ohio. He earned a Ph.D. in communication research from Michigan State University, where he was the recipient of a competitive doctoral fellowship. Dr. Atwater's research interest is news selection behavior in the mass media. He has published approximately thirty refereed journal articles on the subject. He completed postdoctoral study in the Department of Communication at the University of Michigan.

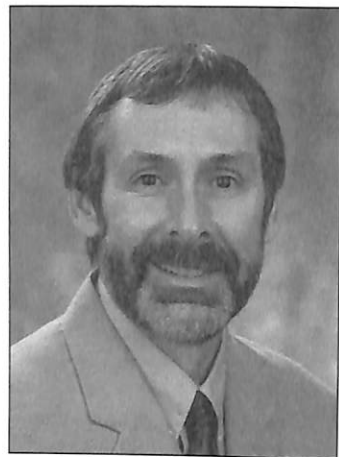

Dr. Atwater earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in mass media arts (magna cum laude) from Hampton University and a master's degree from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. He is the recipient of three graduate certificates in higher education administration from the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

Earlier administrative assignments included roles as dean of the College of Education at Northern Kentucky University, chairperson of the Rutgers University Department of Journalism and Mass Media, and associate vice president for Academic Affairs at the University of Toledo. Dr. Atwater's experience also includes eight years of work in radio and television as a news reporter and director. In addition to his professional work, Dr. Atwater has assumed numerous significant community leadership roles throughout his career.

During his tenure at IUP, President Atwater has assumed several leadership roles. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Economy League of Southwestern Pennsylvania Board of Directors, the International Student Exchange Program Board of Directors, and the American Council on Education's Commission on Lifelong Learning. He is a member of the Indiana County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, the Indiana County Center for Economic Operations, Rotary Club of Indiana, the Greater Indiana Revitalization Steering Committee, and the Indiana County Tourist Bureau.

Dr. Atwater's wife, Dr. Beverly Roberts-Atwater, received both a Ph.D. and a medical degree from Michigan State University and is in private practice as a psychiatrist.

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY AWARDS

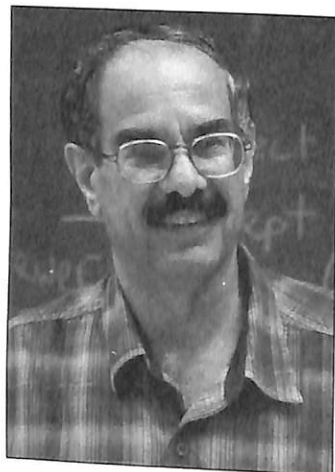

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY AWARD FOR TEACHING

David J. LaPorte

David LaPorte has taught at Indiana University of Pennsylvania since 1995. He also holds appointments at the Maryland Psychiatric Research Center, the University of Maryland School of Medicine Department of Psychiatry, and Indiana Regional Medical Center.

Teaching primarily at the graduate level, Dr. LaPorte has three priorities in teaching—superior knowledge of content, respect for the scientific literature, and connecting with students. He has directed seven master's theses and twenty-three completed dissertations and is overseeing seven more dissertations in progress. Through his teaching, he wants to make a difference in his students' academic and professional development.

Dr. LaPorte writes, "Ideally, in every class I teach, there will be one student who will be changed in some way by the course material as I present it." After this connection is made, many of his students stay in touch. Their testimonials show that his enthusiasm for his field inspires them to take additional courses in Psychology. Dr. LaPorte becomes a true mentor for students, helping them to find a direction for their research and careers, pointing them to opportunities for scholarship and employment, and supporting them through academic and other challenges.

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY AWARD FOR RESEARCH

Abbas J. Ali

Abbas Ali, professor of Management, has been employed by Indiana University of Pennsylvania since 1989. Previously, he taught at Indiana University at South Bend, Fort Hays State University, and Saginaw Valley State University and has been a Fulbright Senior Scholar at the University of Jordan and Visiting Professor of Management at the University of Sharjah and the University of Calgary.

The themes of Dr. Ali's research are critical and timely, including competitiveness in the global environment and cross-cultural studies of managers. Dr. Ali has a long record of scholarly productivity, which the Journal of Teaching in International Business recognized as early as 1998 by naming him the third most prolific writer in the international management area. In the last five years alone, Dr. Ali has published two scholarly books—Islamic Perspectives on Management and Organization and Business and Management Environment in Saudi Arabia—as well as chapters in scholarly books, eleven articles in refereed journals, and numerous commentaries in the popular press; he has also given twenty-four presentations at national and international conferences.

Dr. Ali has served as editor-in-chief of the International Journal of Commerce and Management, which he founded; Competitiveness Review; Advances in Competitiveness Research; and Competition Forum. He has published a variety of instruments to assess such management characteristics as loyalty, risk-taking, and decision-making styles.

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY AWARDS

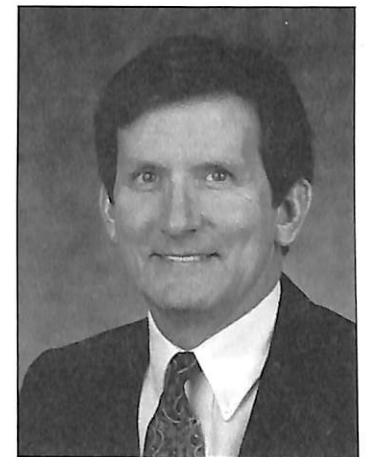

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY AWARD FOR SERVICE

Jonathan B. Smith

Since joining the Department of Health and Physical Education in the fall of 1997, Jonathan B. Smith has demonstrated his commitment to service at all levels of the university and to the regional community through his many outstanding service leadership roles. Among his contributions are the five years he served as chair of the IUP Senate, six years as Senate webmaster, two years as Senate secretary, and three years on the University Wide Promotions Committee and his service as the current chair of the Academic Computing Policy and Advisory Committee.

In addition, Dr. Smith annually organizes several major YMCA and high school swimming competitions, including the IUP Kickoff Classic, Indiana High School Invitational, and YMCA Christmas Tree invitational. These meets host approximately three thousand competitors, some of whom are prospective IUP students. They provide a superb opportunity for service learning for IUP Health and Physical Education majors to participate in managing all aspects of large-scale athletic competitions.

Dr. Smith has worked with Aging Services of Indiana County since 2006 to implement and instruct a senior citizens' aquatic fitness program, has been a member of the committee for a Strategic Plan for Indiana Area School District, has served as a volunteer scuba instructor for the Boy Scouts, and has coordinated the aquatic staff for Habitat for Humanity's Jackie Kallal Triathlon. Dr. Smith is also a member of the editorial board of the International Journal of Aquatic Research and Education.

Indiana University of Pennsylvania was established in 1875 and is the largest and only doctoral research university in the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education. IUP has a long tradition of academic excellence and receives frequent accolades, including designation as one of The Best 368 Colleges in the 2009 edition of a Princeton Review book by that name. The university provides an intellectually challenging experience to fourteen thousand students at three campuses, all easily accessible from Pittsburgh and the Middle Atlantic region. IUP is the largest member institution of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education and the only one authorized to confer doctoral degrees.

Academic offerings include more than one hundred forty undergraduate programs with a variety of internship and study abroad programs, more than sixty master's degree programs, and ten doctoral degrees. Unusual opportunities for research at all levels and the Robert E. Cook Honors College provide special challenges for academic growth. The variety and quality of instruction are characteristic of a big university, yet at IUP, close, one-to-one relationships develop within the teaching framework, and a strong sense of community prevails.

LATIN HONORS

Asterisks denote Latin honors for first-time bachelor degree candidates as follows:

-  Summa Cum Laude 3.75 to 4.00
-  Magna Cum Laude 3.50 to 3.74
- * Cum Laude 3.25 to 3.49

Asterisks denote non-Latin honors for associate degree candidates as follows:

-  With Highest Honor 3.75 to 4.00
-  With High Honor 3.50 to 3.74
- * With Honor 3.25 to 3.49

Graduation honors are tentative and are based upon the cumulative grade-point average after conclusion of the student's next-to-last semester. Final honors for these graduates will be noted after final cumulative grade-point averages have been calculated.

Averages are determined on the basis of the following: 4=A; 3=B; 2=C.

The appearance of a name on this program is not a valid indication of graduation. The diploma of the university and an official transcript, signed and sealed by the proper officers, provide authentic testimony to the conferring of a degree.

GOVERNING AND ADVISORY BOARDS

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION

Since its creation on July 1, 1983, the State System of Higher Education has developed a reputation for service, achievement, and vision. Strong student demand for the academic offerings at the fourteen public universities in the State System is evidenced by the growth in head count enrollment to over 112,500 for 2007-2008. The State System universities are working to fulfill their potential as one of the largest human resource development infrastructures in the commonwealth.

THE SYMBOLS OF LEARNING

Participants in the commencement procession are attired in regalia that reflects a history and heritage that can be traced to the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries. Modern academic regalia evolved from the kinds of apparel worn by monks and students in the Middle Ages to keep warm in the medieval castles and halls in which they studied.

Academic life as we know it today began in the Middle Ages, first in the church, then in the guilds. The teaching guild was the Guild of the Master of Arts, and the Bachelor was the apprentice of the Master; their dress was the outward sign of stature and responsibility. Academic regalia was thus a visible manifestation—in color and pattern and design—that unified those of common discipline and like purpose.

In later centuries, to preserve the regalia's dignity and meaning, universities set rules of academic dress. American universities agreed on a definite system in 1895 establishing a code of approved attire. In 1932 the American Council on Education revised this code, which, for the most part, governs the style of academic dress today. The principal features of academic dress are three: the gown, the cap, and the hood.

The Gown. The flowing gown dates to the twelfth century. Many think it was worn as protection against the cold of unheated buildings. It has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it completely covers any dress of rank or social standing. It is (with a few institutional exceptions) black for all degrees. Pointed sleeves indicate the bachelor's degree; long closed sleeves with a slit in the arm, the master's degree; and round open sleeves, the doctor's degree. The gown for bachelor's or master's degrees has no trimmings; the gown for the doctorate degree is faced down the front with velvet and has three bars of velvet across the sleeves, in the color distinctive of the faculty or discipline in which the degree pertains.

The official colors of the college may also appear in the gown or its decorations. The trustees and some administrators of IUP wear gowns of slate trimmed in crimson velvet.

The Cap. The freed slave in ancient Rome won the privilege of wearing a cap, and so the academic cap is a sign of the freedom of scholarship and the responsibility and dignity with which scholarship endows the wearer. Old poetry records the cap of scholarship as square, symbolizing the book, although other authorities claim that it is a mortar board, the symbol of the masons, a privileged guild. At the baccalaureate level the color of the tassel on the cap denotes the discipline. The tassel is moved from the right side of the cap to the left side upon conferral of the degree.

The Hood. In regalia, the hood is an inverted shield with one or more chevrons of a secondary color on the ground of the primary color of the college. The color of the facing of the hood denotes the discipline represented by the degree; the color of the lining of the hood designates the university or college from which the degree was granted.

The Mace is a ceremonial staff carried by the chief university marshal, who is the most senior faculty member. The chief university marshal opens and closes all academic convocations, such as Honors Convocation and Commencement. Artist and metalsmith Walter J. Kipp designed and constructed the mace for IUP in 1967. The design was created around the state seal, which was placed at the top of the mace. The large keystone which comes next symbolizes the state emblem, and on this keystone the letters IUP are placed. The handturned shaft is made of native Pennsylvania walnut.

The President's Medallion is worn by the president of Indiana University of Pennsylvania during academic convocations as a symbol of the leadership responsibilities vested in that office. The previous medallion, designed and created by professor emeritus Robert W. Hamilton, featured the university seal in a jeweled setting. Professor Hamilton fabricated that medallion in 1998 to replace the original medallion crafted by Walter J. Kipp in 1968 for the fifteenth president, William W. Hassler. The current medallion was crafted at Wendell August Forge. President Tony Atwater was the first president to be inaugurated with the current medallion.
