Convocation; Record Group 41Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Special Collections and University Archives*1 box; 1 linear foot*Abstract

This collection contains information about Convocation activities at Indiana State Teachers College (1952-1959), Indiana State College (1959-1965), and Indiana University of Pennsylvania (1966-present). Convocation has evolved since its inception at Indiana State Teachers College (ISTC). The term was used for any official college event or function often requiring students and employees to wear academic regalia (cap and gown) throughout the academic year. At present, Convocation is the official opening of the academic year.

Scope and Content

This collection is housed in 1 archival box, which contains programs and memorabilia from Convocation, the traditional opening collegiate event of the academic calendar at Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP). For more information about the Robert E. Cook Honors College, visit Record Group 105.

Provenance

Materials were donated by the Office of the President and the Office of Communications.
