Historical Note

This collection represents the history of the towns along the Ghost Town Trail including Claghorn, Rexis, Vintondale, and Wehrum in Indiana County, Pennsylvania. Denise Dusza Weber is a retired school teacher and graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP).

Denise Weber has written several books about regional history including Delano's Doman: A History of Warren Delano's mining towns of Vintondale, Wehrum, and Claghorn (1991), Call Number: F159 .V54 W43 1991; and Vintondale (2008), Call Number: F159 .V54 W436 2008, both of which are in Special Collections and the Circulating Collection of the IUP Libraries. Additional publications are in this collection, including Mary's Story: A girl's journey from an Appalachian coal mining town (Vintondale) to New York City and back again in the early 1900s (2018) by Mary Ann LaMantia.

Scope and Content

The collection is housed in 8 archival boxes. The collection includes archival documents, ledgers, oral history interviews, VHS video cassette tapes, photographs, DVDs, floppy disks, cassette tapes, and forms. In Series II, the glass plate negatives of buildings and people in Vintondale were removed from the collection and placed in special storage. This collection contains photographs and other documents related to coal mining in and around Vintondale, Pennsylvania, including the communities of Claghorn, Dilltown, Nanty-Glo, Rexis, Vintondale, and Wehrum.

For more photographs of this region in Indiana County, Pennsylvania, see Manuscript Group 74: Southwestern Pennsylvania Heritage Preservation Commission Collection (MG 74 Series A Subseries I Box 20A Folder 24) which contains photographs of company towns and mine operations owned by the Lackawanna Coal & Coke Company in Claghorn, Rexis, Vintondale, and Wehrum. This collection also contains 1994 photographs of the PHMC historical marker dedicated to Malcolm Cowley, a native of Belsano, Cambria County, Pennsylvania (Manuscript Group 236).

Videos of Vintondale, Pennsylvania, are available on You Tube including: 1938 firemen convention <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PQ1HzSw9Yus> and Vintondale in 1938 Part 1 <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sydEr9mbn9w> and Vintondale in 1938 Part 2 <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2tG64oUOaAk>
