Historical Note

The Pennsylvania Economic Association (PEA) officially started in 1986, prior to this, the PEA was informally known as the Pennsylvania Conference of Economists for 30 years. The PEA is a professional association comprised of faculty, economists, and allied social scientists from Pennsylvania, neighboring states, and countries around the world. The PEA holds annual research conferences at the end of each academic year.

For more information, visit the Pennsylvania Economic Association (PEA) website:
Pennsylvania Economic Association \(PEA\) \(econpea.org\)

Scope and Content Note

The PEA collection includes paper and electronic records from past annual meetings and publications dating back to 1989. The collection is divided into series including PEA Annual Meeting and Conference Programs and Proceedings; and the publication Pennsylvania Economic Review.

Provenance

This collection was created by an initial donation in 2020-2022 by the Pennsylvania Economic Association (PEA) with special thanks to Dr. James Jozefowicz.
