Historical Note

The COVID-19 Documentation Collection reflects upon the events of Spring 2020, 2020-2021, and 2021-2022 at Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP). The collection also includes information about how COVID-19 impacted the economic and health of people at Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), and in Indiana County, Pennsylvania.

Scope and Content Note

This collection contains correspondence, course assignments, legislation, photographs, press releases, audio/visual recordings, student projects, and responses from IUP employees, students, and the community. This collection is stored in a virtual format and selected materials will be made available upon request.

Provenance

This collection was started in 2019-2020, and it includes materials donated by the IUP community.

Restrictions

Components of this collection are available for research, but requests must be made in writing and submitted for approval. Property rights reside with Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), and the IUP Special Collections and University Archives. Literary rights are retained by the creators of the records and their heirs. For permissions to reproduce or publish, please contact the Special Collections Librarian and University Archivist.

Processor

The collection was organized and the finding aid was updated by Harrison Wick on November 29, 2021.
